

Pay Online

City of Bremen Water Department is now accepting online payments.

Notice to online payers:

Any payment made through an online bill pay service other than the link above may delay credit to your account. Delayed payments for any reason may result in late fees and/or disconnection of your water service. Please be sure you are using the official bremenga.gov/nexbillpay link in order to ensure proper online payment to your account.

IMPORTANT: City of Bremen is not liable if you do not call our office before making payment on disconnect day. Your services may be disconnected and will be subject to a reconnect fee. If you are disconnected, your account balance plus a reconnect fee will need to be paid in FULL before services are reconnected. If you are currently disconnected and make an online payment, your utilities WILL NOT be reconnected unless you contact our office to inform us of the payment.

By continuing, you agree to the above conditions.

To begin your quick and easy bill payment you must agree to the following:

If your account is delinquent, disconnected, or in the disconnect process, you MUST contact our office BEFORE you make a payment. Services will not automatically be restored or disconnection prevented if payment is made without contacting our office FIRST!

Any payment made after 12:00 midnight on the day prior to cut off date will be subject to disconnection.
